

This rather obscure grape is grown predominantly in the Madiran province in Southern France and in Uruguay, Argentina and Chile. We were able to tame its abundant tannins with judicious maceration times, blending with Merlot and cellaring in one fill barrels for 15 months. 85% TANNAT, 15% MERLOT. 60 cases produced.